Grade Report, View Financial Holds, Apply to Graduate

There are 3 options for active students to view their grades:

Student Records

Grade Report
Unofficial transcript - not available if a financial hold is in place. This is for Current Students.

- Courses with a 'Pass' or 'Fail' grade are not included in the end of term average (GPA calculation)
- A student's end of term average is calculated based on all numeric grades.
- In the mesAMIS grade report, and official transcript report, a student's end of term average is only posted if a student has completed a minimum of 18 numeric grades.
  - * Exception for 2019-2020 academic year only, a student average on the mesAMIS grade report and official transcript is calculated based on the minimum of 21 numeric grades.

Midterm Grades
For students with an active student record, and at least one midterm grade.
October grades will NOT be available after November 20.
Final Grades
For students with an active student record, and at least one final grade. The current term option is only available once a final grade for the current term is entered.
GPA refers to average. Quality points is credits multiplied by grade.

- * Exception for 2019-2020 academic year only, a student average on the mesAMIS grade report and official transcript is calculated based on the minimum of 21 numeric grades.

View Financial Holds
Apply to Graduate
Students who are in their final year of study of their program and plan to graduate at the next May or December convocation are required to submit an application for graduation.

Grade report

- Includes all courses completed at StFX and credits from another institution.
- Final grades only once they are rolled, no mid-term grades
- Not available if a student has a financial hold; may use the mid-term/final grades options.

Mid-term Grades

- October mid-term grades available in the current term until November 20.
- December mid-term grades for full year courses. Viewable to student at time of entry.

Final Grades

The current term will appear in the drop-down menu once a final grade is rolled.
